

I am against allowing the Consumer Banking Association trying to overturn the "no-call" list so they can use it to call for their business. The "no-call" list was created for the people who want their privacy at home.